

PROGRAM SELECTION REPORT FORM

1. Name of chapter/chapter in formation: Assistance League® of Salt Lake City
2. Name of auxiliary (if auxiliary program):
3. Name of program: Act III
4. Date accepted by vote of membership, including approval of bylaws and standing rules amendments: 1988. Originally organized under "Senior Citizens Special Services" umbrella, it later became a separate entity and was renamed Act III.
5. Reason for adoption: To entertain the population of citizens residing in assisted living, skilled nursing, Alzheimer or other care centers with a musical program of songs.
6. Collaboration with another organization: ALSLC collaborates with a number of assisted living and care centers in the greater Salt Lake area through written agreements.
7. Operation: The program is open to all interested ALSLC members. The season runs from late summer until Christmas, resuming in late January, with performances scheduled through mid-May. The group rehearses weekly before presenting a 30-minute musical program, typically at two facilities once/week. The program varies seasonally, using a pre-recorded song list on CD that serves as musical accompaniment and background.
8. Financial support and budget: Funds will be available as budget allows.
9. Administration: The Act III Committee consists of a chairman, vice chairman and members as needed for scheduling, music selection and choreography.

PROGRAM SELECTION REPORT FORM

1. Name of chapter/chapter in formation: Assistance League® of Salt Lake City
2. Name of auxiliary (if auxiliary program): Consociates
3. Name of program: Assault Survivor Kits® (ASK)
4. Date accepted by vote of membership, including membership approval of bylaws and standing rules amendments: 1994.
5. Reason for adoption: To provide victims of sexual abuse with clothing and other articles that will help them recover from the forensic examination after their assault.
6. Collaboration with another organization: ALSLC has established agreements with local hospitals and rape recovery centers in the greater Salt Lake area.
7. Operation: ALSLC assembles "kits" or individual bundles of underwear and clothing (such as sweats) and supplies for sexual assault victims to wear and take home after the exam since medical examiners take their clothes as evidence. Consociates members assemble these kits during their monthly meetings and deliver to agencies as needed.
8. Financial support and budget: Funds will be available as budget allows.
9. Administration: The Assault Survivor Kits Committee consists of a chairman, vice chairman and members as needed.

PROGRAM SELECTION REPORT FORM

1. Name of chapter/chapter in formation: Assistance League® of Salt Lake City
2. Name of auxiliary (if auxiliary program): Consociates
3. Name of program: Baby Bundles
4. Date accepted by vote of membership, including membership approval of bylaws and standing rules amendments: 1992.
5. Reason for adoption: Low-income mothers in the community often do not have the means to provide for basic needs for their newborn babies.
6. Collaboration with another organization: ALSLC Consociates has established agreements with several hospitals in the Salt Lake valley that distribute the Baby Bundles to patients in need.
7. Operation: Consociates members assemble layettes consisting of such items as diapers, onesies, blankets, baby book, etc. These layettes are assembled during monthly meetings and delivered as needed.
8. Financial support and budget: Funds will be available as budget allows.
9. Administration: The Baby Bundles Committee consists of a chairman, vice chairman and members as needed.

PROGRAM SELECTION REPORT FORM

1. Name of chapter/chapter information: Assistance League® of Salt Lake City
2. Name of auxiliary (if auxiliary program):
3. Name of program: Book Bank
4. Date accepted by vote of membership, including membership approval of bylaws and standing rules amendments: 1974. The first project of the newly formed Salt Lake Assistance League was a literacy project called "Reading is Fundamental" (RIF). The name was changed to Book Bank in 1976.
5. Reason for adoption: To provide a literacy enhancement program for children in Head Start programs and other areas of the community; to participate in special events that feature books and reading; to assist other ALSLC Philanthropic Programs in selecting and ordering books; and to supply books to other identified agencies when funds are available.
6. Collaboration with another organization: Head Start, various school districts, community bookstores and other organizations as appropriate.
7. Operation: ALSLC provides books to approved agencies or schools. Members read to groups of children in Head Start classes and provide each child (pre-K) in the class with a book to keep and take home. Additional books may be distributed to school libraries or individual students as summer reading, or to underserved areas of the state, such as Indian reservations.
8. Financial support and budget: Funds will be available as budget allows.
9. Administration: The Book Bank Committee consists of a chairman, vice chairman and members as needed.

PROGRAM SELECTION REPORT FORM

1. Name of chapter/chapter in formation: Assistance League® of Salt Lake City
2. Name of auxiliary (if auxiliary program):
3. Name of program: Brighter Tomorrows
4. Date accepted by vote of membership, including membership approval of bylaws and standing rules amendments: November 19, 1990. First approved as "Operation New Beginnings," the program name was changed to Brighter Tomorrows in May 1991.
5. Reason for adoption: Low-income women and men re-entering the work force or returning to studies often need appropriate clothing they may not be able to afford for these new pursuits.
6. Collaboration with another organization: ALSLC collaborates through agreements with a number of agencies in the Salt Lake area who deal with lower-income clients they refer to our program.
7. Operation: ALSLC provides social services agencies under agreement with embossed vouchers for services through our Thrift Shop. The agencies then refer clients to our Thrift Shop to receive articles of clothing, personal hygiene supplies, a haircut gift card and, in some cases, a voucher to purchase shoes. Also, Brighter Tomorrows often assembles and distributes Mother's and Father's Day gift baskets for residents of our homeless shelters or other low-income recipients.
8. Financial support and budget: Funds will be available as budget allows.
9. Administration: The Brighter Tomorrows Committee consists of a chairman, vice chairman and members as needed to distribute vouchers, oversee inventory, purchase items and track expenses.

PROGRAM SELECTION REPORT – OUTREACH

1. Name of chapter: Assistance League® of Salt Lake City
2. Name of auxiliary: (if auxiliary program):
3. Name of program: Eye on the Community (Outreach)
4. Date accepted by vote of membership, including approval of bylaws and standing rules amendments: June 15, 2015.
5. Reason for adoption: This program provides a flexible, rapid-response strategy by which Assistance League® of Salt Lake City can respond to community emergencies or specific unmet needs by providing service and support that do not fit within existing programs and that can be addressed in a flexible, timely and temporary manner.
6. Collaboration with another organization: Assistance League® of Salt Lake City may receive referrals/requests from nonprofit organizations/agencies and school districts and may collaborate with them in providing services to the community.
7. Operation: Participation will reflect appropriate levels of community and/or recipient need, membership involvement, and available funds. Typically, each approved project will be managed by a project chairman who reports to the program chairman.
8. Financial support and budget: Funds will be available as budget allows. Specific project budgets may be adjusted and redistributed among the various projects under the total program budget.
9. Administration: The Eye on the Community committee consists of a chairman and various project chairmen who are responsible for each individual project.

PROGRAM SELECTION REPORT FORM

1. Name of chapter/chapter information: Assistance League® of Salt Lake City
2. Name of auxiliary (if auxiliary program):
3. Name of program: Operation Healthy Teeth
4. Date accepted by vote of membership, including membership approval of bylaws and standing rules amendments: 2004. Originally named Operation Happy Teeth, the program was revised and renamed in November 2006.
5. Reason for adoption: There exists a great need for urgent dental care among low-income children in the Salt Lake area whose families have no form of insurance or government assistance to provide this care.
6. Collaboration with another organization: ALSLC has recruited a team of dental professionals who treat approved patients in their own offices. These dentists must sign an agreement with ALSLC and provide proof of malpractice insurance. ALSLC also collaborates with the Utah Dental Association and other community dental clinics and programs.
7. Operation: ALSLC has established a process for schools, agencies and dental offices to make referrals at any time for necessary, urgent care, including orthodontic treatment. School personnel and dental professionals identify, qualify (to make sure they have no other means of payment for treatment) and refer children, pre-K through 19, to our program. After the child is approved, an appointment is set up with one of the participating dentists. OHT provides a contribution per patient for x-rays, amalgam, anesthesia, composites, chair side assistance, etc., and the dentists typically donate their time.
8. Financial support and budget: Funds will be available as budget allows.
9. Administration: The Operation Healthy Teeth Committee consists of a chairman and members who serve as liaisons to the school districts, dentists and finance.

OPERATION SCHOOL BELL® PROGRAM SELECTION REPORT

1. Name of chapter/chapter in formation: Assistance League® of Salt Lake City
2. Name of auxiliary (if auxiliary program):
3. Name of program: Operation School Bell®
4. Date accepted by vote of membership, including membership approval of bylaws and standing rules amendments: 1976.
5. Reason for adoption: In our community there are children in need who require one or all of the services to be provided for clothes, hunger, supplies, health, and /or literacy.
6. Collaboration with another organization: Currently ALSLC collaborates with several school districts in our area. The agreements with each school district superintendent also cover Operation Healthy Teeth and Book Bank programs.
7. Operation: Operation School Bell is a program to address children in need and provide one or all of the services for clothes, hunger, supplies, health, and/or literacy. The program is staffed by ALSLC members who order, receive, stock and package individual clothing bundles that are delivered to the schools we serve. The program also provides an opportunity for outside volunteers to assist in assembling the individual clothing bundles. When funds are available, we serve junior high students by providing shopping experiences through Old Navy vouchers.
8. Financial support and budget: Funds will be available as budget allows.
9. Administration: The Operation School Bell Committee consists of a chairman, vice chairman and members as needed.
